

I would like to express my opinion that Wisconsin's No Call List not be weakened. It appears obvious that any Trade Association that would like to change the current program is doing so only for their own profit, at the expense of consumers.